Today's Welcoming Ritual

*"You really can change the world if you care enough"
~Marian Wright Edelman, civil rights activist*

Who is a person you know that worked for change in society and achieved it, even in some small way? You can consider people you know, historical figures, or current events. What causes did they care about? Why do you think they decided it was their responsibility to help make a change?

Organizing Schools for Improvement

2020-21 SURVEY NOW OPEN!

Today (Wednesday) you will receive an email from Mr. Davis with your username and password to take the 5 Essentials Survey. The link to the survey will also be included in the email. This is very similar to how you have done SAEBRS.

Please take the 5 Essentials on tomorrow (March 11th) or Friday (March 12th)!

Are you ready for school picture day?

March 17th and March 18th are portrait days at FMS.

How is it going to work?

1 - Hybrid students and staff will have their photos taken at during the day at FMS on March 17th or 18th.

2 - Remote students and staff can come into the main lobby, (use the front doors) from 1:40-3:30 PM on either day.

There will NOT be a retake day!

The photos will be taken in the library and it will be a District 186 dress code day!

Portraits packets will be sent out as soon as they arrive FMS. Remote students can stop in the main office for a packet or order online. Information can be found on the FMS website.
