

Distance Learning Expectations

- Be prepared to learn
- Join class meetings on time
- Use an appropriate name to label yourself. (i.e. Your First and Last Name) Inappropriate or incorrect names, pictures or GIFS for a Zoom should not be used
- Participate in activities
- Ask questions
- Do your best work
- Complete all assignments
- Communicate with your instructor
- When in doubt, email your instructor about assignments, course meetings, etc.
- Follow the approved dress code
- Make sure you have an appropriate space to work and meet virtually with your instructor during specified class time

Appropriate Spaces: Kitchen table, dining room table, desk in bedroom, living room, etc.

Inappropriate Spaces: In your bed under the covers, the bathroom, while driving a vehicle, at work, outside on a walk, etc.

- The camera is expected to be on the student's face at all times during class meetings, unless told otherwise by the instructor.
- Give instructors your full attention during Zoom and other online meetings when meeting during a specified class period

Appropriate Behavior: Being present for the entire Zoom/Online meeting, sitting up in a chair, keeping camera on face

Inappropriate Behaviors: Video gaming, driving a car, playing on cell phone, sleeping, taking a walk, removing camera from face, using complete face coverings on camera, inappropriate chat discussions

- Respect the ideas of others
 - Use polite language and tone of voice
 - Wait until it is your turn to speak
 - Remove face coverings when possible
 - Stay off of your cell phone while classes are in session
-